

Urban development projects

Read about the main urban development projects in Tourcoing for the months and years to come ... Small or large, they all help to improve the living environment of the town's inhabitants and add to Tourcoing's attractiveness in the Lille metropolitan area and beyond.

Projects are planned within the districts to make daily life easier and better for their inhabitants. They concern, for example, the renovation of schools, sports halls, etc.